

- 1, 2.1 and 3.1 of the Antidumping Agreement, because it may lead to the imposition of antidumping duties on imports of CTVs from Mexico and Thailand without findings of dumping and resulting injury ever having been made.
- The refusal by the United States to conduct a standing inquiry before initiating its anti-circumvention investigation violates Article 3.1, 3.6, 4.1 and 5.6 of the Antidumping Agreement.
  - Failure by the United States to make a determination in the anti-circumvention inquiries for more than 22 months violates Article 5.10 of the Antidumping Agreement.
  - The conduct of the United States in the revocation review and the anti-circumvention inquiries, when examined and compared, violates Article X.3 of GATT 1994 and Article 17.6(i) of the Antidumping Agreement because the United States has not established the facts properly nor has it evaluated the facts in an unbiased and objective manner.

Public Comment: Requirements for Submissions

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments concerning the issues raised in the dispute. Comments must be in English and provided in fifteen copies. A person requesting that information contained in a comment submitted by that person be treated as confidential business information must certify that such information is business confidential and would not customarily be released to the public by the commenter. Confidential business information must be clearly marked "Business Confidential" in a contrasting color ink at the top of each page of each copy.

Information or advice contained in a comment submitted, other than business confidential information, may be determined by USTR to be confidential in accordance with section 135(g)(2) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2155(g)(2)). If the submitter believes that information or advice may qualify as such, the submitter—

- (1) Must so designate that information or advice;
- (2) Must clearly mark the material as "Submitted in Confidence" in a contrasting color ink at the top of each page of each copy; and
- (3) Is encouraged to provide a non-confidential summary of the information or advice.

Pursuant to section 127(e) of the URAA (19 U.S.C. 3537(e)), USTR will maintain a file on this dispute settlement proceeding, accessible to the public, in the USTR Reading Room: Room 101, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, N.W., Washington DC 20408. The public file will include a listing of any comments received by USTR from the public with respect to the proceeding; the U.S. submissions to the panel in the proceeding; the submissions, or non-confidential summaries of submissions, to the panel received from other participants in the dispute, as well as the report of the dispute settlement panel and, if applicable, the report of the Appellate Body. An appointment to review the public file (Docket WTO/D-22, "U.S.—Anti-Dumping Duties on Color Televisions from Korea") may be made by calling Brenda Webb, (202) 395-6186. The USTR Reading Room is open to the public from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.
